

GLASGOW MONTANA

A DAY TO ROAM IN GLASGOW, MONTANA

Glasgow has been deemed the official “middle of nowhere,” and that’s part of what makes it so special. The town is charming yet remote, surrounded by more room to roam and full of fun local attractions. While Glasgow’s remote location is part of its draw, folks are still conveniently close to day-trip-worthy destinations like Fort Peck Lake.

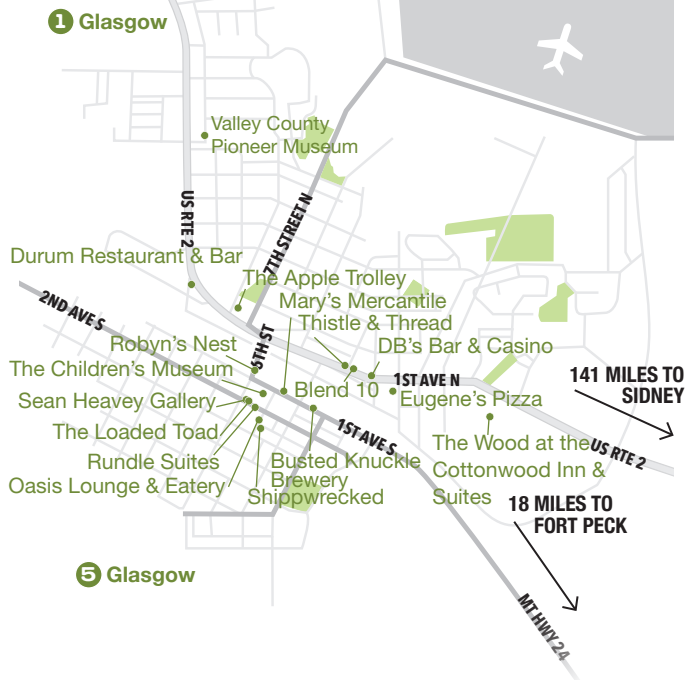

Milk River Observation Point, Carla Hunsley

Scan to learn more and start planning.

GLASGOW, MONTANA

1 GLASGOW, MONTANA

Fuel up for your day in Glasgow. Sit down for a hearty breakfast at The Wood or DB's Bar & Casino or the Oasis Lounge & Eatery. If you're eager to get on the road, grab coffee on-the-go at The Loaded Toad, Blend 10 or The Apple Trolley.

Bonus: Snap a photo at the "Middle of Nowhere" sign before leaving town.

Other Points of Interest in Glasgow:

- Check out the Children's Museum and the impressive World Wildlife exhibit. Seasonal hours.
- View local art at Art Spot and Sean Heavey Gallery.
- Visit the Valley County Pioneer Museum for a deeper dive into local history (seasonal).
- Browse specialty shops in the historic district such as Shippwrecked, Mary's Mercantile, Robyn's Nest and Thistle & Thread Boutique.

2 FORT PECK, MONTANA

Get on the road and head south for 18 miles on State Highway 24 toward Fort Peck, where big fish, fossils and outdoor fun await.

Make your first stop at the Fort Peck Interpretive Center for prehistoric discoveries and local history.

Head over to the Fort Peck Spillway for endless views and epic photography opportunities.

Bonus: Check out the Leo B. Coleman Buffalo Pasture nearby for some wildlife watching.

Other Points of Interest in Fort Peck:

- Take a tour of the Fort Peck Fish Hatchery.
- Catch a show at the Fort Peck Summer Theatre.
- Go boating and tubing on Fort Peck Lake.
- Enjoy lunch or drinks at the Gateway Club Restaurant & Bar.

Don't forget to pack your fishing rods! From the town of Fort Peck, choose your adventure and head for the seemingly endless shores of Fort Peck Lake or the Mighty Missouri River.

3 FORT PECK LAKE

For epic fishing on Fort Peck Lake, your options are endless—after all, this lake has more miles of shoreline than the California coastline! Stop at the Lakeridge Lodge & Bait Shop or Fort Peck Marina to stock up, get your fishing license and talk to local fishing guides.

Pro Tip: Fishing near the dam is known for northern pike, walleye, smallmouth bass, salmon, lake trout and a mix of other species. Anglers can also catch these species below the dam in the Missouri River, in Hell Creek—and in other areas of the lake.

4 MILK RIVER OBSERVATION POINT

Check out the Milk River Observation Point nearby. A short, dirt hiking trail will reward you with beautiful views of the confluence of the Milk River and Missouri River, along with interpretive information about the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

5 GLASGOW, MONTANA

Treat yourself after a long day on the lake or river (or both). Make your way back to Glasgow and grab a pint at Busted Knuckle Brewery.

Finish your beer and grab some dinner at a local restaurant like Eugene's Pizza, Durum or The Wood.

WHERE TO STAY

- Historic Fort Peck Hotel
- Cottonwood Inn & Suites
- Rundle Suites

